

INCLUSION

Purpose

Dandenong Stadium recognises the social and health benefits associated with being a part of the sporting community. Dandenong Stadium is committed to eliminating discrimination in all forms and upholds the principle of equal opportunity. Dandenong Stadium believes that sport should be accessible to all Victorians.

Policy

Legislation

To ensure that the Dandenong Stadium is welcoming and inclusive, the Stadium Operations Manager will uphold the principles established in both State and Commonwealth Government Legislation including:

- Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (Vic);
- Racial Discrimination Act 1975 (Aust. Gov.);
- Sex Discrimination Act 1984 (Aust. Gov);
- Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (Aust Gov); and
- Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission Act 1986 (Aust. Gov.).

Such principles are also outlined in for example Basketball Victoria's Member Protection By-laws. A process or resource will be provided should an individual have his or her rights violated. Likewise for other sports being participated in at Dandenong Stadium.

Definition

Discrimination means treating someone unfairly because they happen to belong to a particular group of people for example females, males, ethnics or people who have disabilities.

Discrimination is often the result of prejudice or negative stereotyping based on ignorance, fear or simple naivety.

1. The complaint should be filed, in writing, to the Dandenong Stadium Operations Manager or CEO, who may refer the matter on to a Member Protection Officer or if it's a basketball matter to Basketball Victoria's Member Protection Tribunal for action.
2. The issue will then be dealt with in accordance to the Member Protection By-Laws of the particular sport's state body.
